West Peterborough Dance is based at Jack Hunt School and offers classes for students aged 3+ in many different styles.

We are a welcoming and inclusive school and we believe that dance is for everyone. Dance offers many benefits for children and adults including:

- Improved strength, stamina and flexibility
- Improved coordination and balance
- Enhanced creativity and cognitive development
- Reduced anxiety and low mood.

Our classes take place in the studios at Jack Hunt School and all our teachers are fully qualified, DBS checked and first-aid trained.

Students have the opportunity to perform in regular shows and are able to take Ballet exams with the ISTD (Imperial Society of Teachers of Dance) and Musical Theatre exams with the London College of Music.

For more information and to arrange a free taster session in any class please see our contact details below.

Geena Hird

Principal of West Peterborough Dance

Geena trained at Redroofs Theatre School where she graduated with distinction in Dance and Musical Theatre. She performed in many productions including Midsummer Night's Dream, Cinderella, My Fair Lady and Charlotte's Web before beginning her teacher training in Cecchetti Classical Ballet. She worked as Lead Tutor of the Jack Hunt Theatre & Dance School for three years before taking over the business as West Peterborough Dance. Geena is a Licentiate of the Imperial Society of Teachers of Dancing and the London College of Music.

Poppy Mason

Principal of West Peterborough Dance

Poppy first began her dance training with Mrs Garfield, which eventually became the Jack Hunt Dance and Theatre School, before returning to teach there. She was a Cecchetti Ballet Associate and also worked as the employed assistant within the dance school, helping the younger students in their ballet classes. Poppy has worked as a professional dancer at Disneyland Paris, and then continued to work across Europe for Disney Special Events. After graduating from university with a 2:1 BA (Hons) Dance with Performing Arts, Poppy completed her teacher training and is currently working as a Primary School teacher as well as running West Peterborough Dance.
